Dear Nelson:

Many thanks for your letter of December 19
inviting my attention to the unusual qualifications of [redacted]

I have asked our Director of Personnel, Harry Reynolds, to look into our requirements for an outstanding graphics analyst like [redacted] and I would appreciate it if you would ask her to call Mr. Reynolds. He can be reached on [redacted] [redacted] and if she will be good enough to call him he will be pleased to have a talk with her concerning the possibilities here.

I appreciate your bringing [redacted] to my attention and I am hopeful that we will find a spot where we can utilize her fine talents.

With very best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Faithfully,

Dear Nelson:

Thank you very much for your letter of December 30th and the enclosures thereto giving some background data and evaluations on various secretarial and clerical personnel who have been working with you.

I very much appreciate your bringing these people to my attention and I am asking our Director of Personnel, Harry Reynolds, to contact them direct. I am hopeful that we will be able to take advantage of the opportunity to employ some of these highly qualified former associates of yours.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Nelson:

I appreciate your accepting our invitation to be on our Orientation Program as the keynote speaker. As I mentioned to you, you will be addressing a group of approximately 600 career members of the Central Intelligence Agency who will be attending a four-day training program.

Your presentation is scheduled for the first morning, 3 November 1953, from 0930 to 1005 hours, to be followed by a ten-minute question period.

I have made the necessary arrangements so that [redacted] will meet with you to answer any questions which you might have on the format of the program or the proposed substance of your remarks.
